Publications

Articles in Refereed Journals

Books

none this quarter

Chapters in Books

Articles in Conference Proceedings

Other Publications

Presentations (not included in conference proceedings above)

Nissen, M.E., “Agent-Based C2 Modeling and Simulation with POWer," invited presentation, MOVES Seminar, Monterey, CA (July 2010).

Grants and Funding

Awards

Richard Bergin - Center for Homeland Defense and Security Faculty Impact Award - September 2010.
Significant Professional Activities

Alex Bordetsky, John Looney, Eugene Bourakov, Steve Mullins, Bryan Hudgens, Michael Clement, Craig Gabriellini, Kendall Bodnar, Mike Kutsor, Eugene Albin, Costas Vasilopolous, and Jeff Vitalich participated in the CENETIX TNT MIO 10-2 experiment conducted across various testbed nodes including NPS’s CENETIX Lab, Lawrence Livermore National Lab, San Francisco Bay, Eckernförde and University of Bundeswehr in Germany, Swedish Defense Research Agency (FOI), and NATO’s MIO Training Center in Souda Bay, Crete.

John Looney re-opened the NPS Distance Learning Office in Norfolk, VA where capabilities exist to support NPS’s CED3 programs and professors visiting the Hampton Roads area of Virginia for research activities.

Utschig, J.M. conducted a site survey for a large scale network integration project, NATO Joint Warfare Center, Stavanger, Norway 12 July 10

Wood, B.P., participated in United States Southern Command Science, Technology, and Experimentation Conference, Miami, FL 30 June-01 July 2010.

PhD Student Accomplishments

John Looney earned his PhD!