JUST FOR MASS
Many of us have drifted away from going to church in the past. We had lots of reasons: Kids’ activities, limited time at home between deployments, lack of sleep. But you’re back attending church and it feels good. Now, think of a fellow student or spouse who has stopped attending mass. Invite them to come to mass with you one time, no obligation. Then let God do the rest. It could be the greatest favor you could do for a friend.

ALL SAINTS DAY
Wednesday, November 1st, The Solemnity of All Saints, is a holy day of obligation in the United States. We will have masses here at the chapel at 1205 and 1715. On this special solemnity, the Church celebrates all the saints: canonized or beatified, and the multitude of those who are in heaven enjoying the beatific vision that are known only to God. The feast of All Saints, on its current date, is traced to the foundation by Pope Gregory III (731–741) of an oratory in St. Peter’s for the relics "of the holy apostles and of all saints, martyrs and confessors, of all the just made perfect who are at rest throughout the world." Like the saints, we all have a "universal call to holiness." What must we do in order to join the company of the saints in heaven? We "must follow in His footsteps and conform ourselves to His image seeking the will of the Father in all things. We must devote ourselves with all our being to the glory of God and the service of our neighbor. In this way, the holiness of the People of God will grow into an abundant harvest of good, as is admirably shown by the life of so many saints in Church history" (Lumen Gentium, 40).

WANTED:
Preschool teacher for Religious Education.

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME ENDS NOVEMBER 5
While everyone is urged to arrive EARLY to mass every Sunday, don’t be the guy that shows up an hour early next week. Set your clocks back one hour on Saturday night (or just let your phone update automatically) and enjoy the extra hour of sleep.

ALL SOULS DAY
The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, also known as All Souls Day, is not a holy day of obligation, but those wanting to remember the dead are invited to attend the 1205 mass on Thursday, November 2nd. The Church, after rejoicing on All Saints Day with those of her children who have entered the glory of heaven, prays on All Souls Day for all those who, in the purifying fire, await the day when they will be joined to the company of saints. Purgatory is necessary so that souls can be cleansed and perfected before they enter into heaven. There is scriptural basis for this belief. The primary references are 2 Maccabees 12:39-45, the purifying fire in 1 Corinthians 3:10-15, and forgiveness in the age to come in Matthew 12:32. Jewish tradition also reinforces this belief as well as the tradition and teaching of the Church, which has been affirmed throughout history. Consistent with these teachings and traditions, we believe that through the prayers of the faithful on Earth, the Church is able to join her prayer with that of the saints in heaven and supply what is wanting to heal and transform the souls in purgatory, making them capable of unity with the whole communion of saints.
