

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2016 16-19 March 2016 in Atlanta, GA

See below for the Intelligence Studies Section program at the International Studies Association (ISA) conference, 16-19 March 2016 in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Intelligence Studies Section is one of 28 thematic sections that make up the ISA, has approximately 350 members, and has been sponsoring research about intelligence as a function of government since the mid-1980s. Additional information can be found here: <http://www.isanet.org/ISA/Sections/ISS.aspx>

This Intelligence Studies Section content (4 straight days...28 panels and roundtables) is one small part of ISA's much larger conference. The full conference program is over 300 pages; find details at the full conference website here: <http://www.isanet.org/Conferences/Atlanta-2016>

As the chair of the Intelligence Studies Section, if you have any questions please contact me at marrinsp@jmu.edu or spm8p@yahoo.com

Regards,

Dr. Stephen Marrin
