

Official Title Options:

Professor/Distinguished Professor (assigned specialty)

Visiting Professor (assigned specialty)

Pay Schedule: AD-7

Tenure Track Position

Non-Tenure Track Position

- A. Summary: A Professor teaches subjects offered by the assigned department; supervises and evaluates theses and dissertations; conducts research to advance the state of knowledge and maintain currency in the discipline, to meet DoN needs, and to provide student research topics; provides expert disciplinary advice to entities in DoN and DoD; provides academic service to NPS; and serves the broader academic community. Professors provide leadership across the department, school, and campus in a variety of roles, and significant off-campus service to the DoN and others. Professors interact professionally in a variety of national and international fora.
- B. Duties: A Professor
- prepares and teaches assigned courses and seminars in residence, off-campus, on-line, or afloat, as necessary;
 - proposes and leads scholarly research and disseminates results, especially through peer-reviewed means;
 - advises student theses and dissertations;
 - leads the design and development of courses and curricula as required;
 - advises students and mentors junior faculty on academic matters;
 - manages and governs the academic unit, programs, and school as required;
 - provides academic advice, service, or consultation to Naval and Defense activities, and to others as required; and
 - performs other duties commonly understood to be faculty duties, as required.
- C. Scope of Duties: Professors lead the academic enterprises at the program, department, school, and campus level, and provide significant external services to DoN activities, DoD activities, and professional organizations. Professors may engage with students who are located at duty stations across the world as well as at Monterey.
- D. Qualifications:
- An earned doctoral degree in a discipline that supports the departmental instructional needs;
 - Extensive experience (typically 12 years) as a faculty member in one or more accredited institutions of higher education (5 or more as an associate professor or equivalent);
 - evidence of excellent teaching;
 - a national reputation for scholarship;
 - a significant publications record;
 - a record of successful advising of student theses or dissertations; and
 - a significant record of academic service.
- E. Special Requirements: Position designated non-critical sensitive (requiring Secret eligibility) unless otherwise designated via the Position Designation Tool on the AD PD Addendum.