Human Rights Awareness Education (if required)

(1) To log in or register for human rights awareness education, visit <http://www.americasnet.org/certifications/login.cfm>. To register, create a user name, and provide a valid e-mail address (preferably a .mil account, although any commercial e-mail account should work). Once registered, a confirmation e-mail will be sent to the traveler containing a link; travelers must click to confirm. Once confirmed (usually instantly), travelers will receive a second e-mail containing their temporary password. Be sure to remember the username selected during the registration process. If the confirmation e-mail is not received or the password e-mail, check the spam filter/junk mail, or try registering with a different e-mail account. Travelers may need to turn off their pop-up blocker if they have their password but are unable to log in.

(2) Point of contact: Human Rights Office, Stability Directorate, USSOUTHCOM; commercial phone 305-437-1512 or 305-437-1560 (DSN 567-1512 or 567-1560).
