PRINCIPLES OF DEFENSE ACQUISITION & CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

RESIDENT: P179623 (SPANISH)
MOBILE: P319623

ELIGIBLE FUNDING: IMET, FMF/FMS
CERTIFICATION: E-IMET, PME

This International Defense Acquisition Resource Management (IDARM) course provides a practical examination of defense acquisition and contract management with an emphasis on acquisition planning, contract management, negotiation of defense contracts, and building and sustaining accountability in defense acquisition decision-making. The course addresses the importance of managing risk throughout the defense acquisition life cycle with a focus on the pre- and post-contract award phase. International best practices and global trends are discussed with a tailored focus on specific challenges and opportunities within the Latin American context.

OBJECTIVES

Participants will be able to:

- ◆ Develop an understanding of fundamental concepts and challenges associated with defense acquisition and contract management decision-making
- ◆ Examine capabilities-based requirements planning along with the relationships among national security and military strategies and defense acquisition, procurement, and contracting systems
- ◆ Examine competition and sourcing methodologies with a focus on the characteristics of efficient and effective acquisition and contract management policies
- ◆ Assist countries in their efforts to develop and institutionalize transparent, efficient, and effective defense acquisition and contract management systems

TOPICS

Course topics may include:

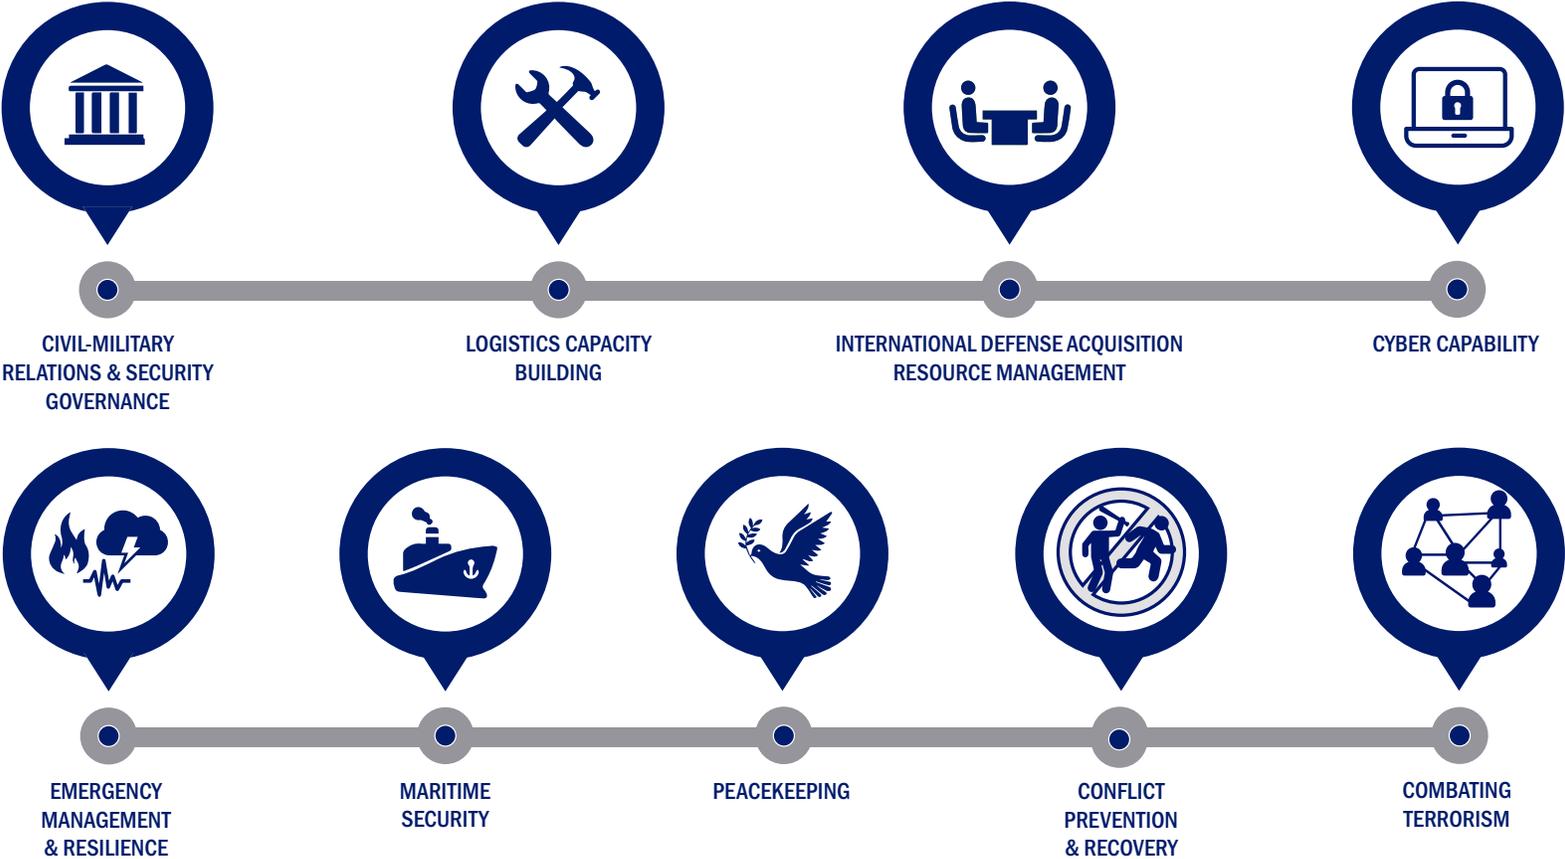

- ◆ Defense acquisition planning
- ◆ Effective acquisition and procurement policy
- ◆ Transparency, fraud, and ethics
- ◆ Procurement and contracting
- ◆ Contract negotiations
- ◆ Building and sustaining accountability in defense acquisition decision-making

PARTICIPANTS

This offering is designed specifically for Spanish-speaking international military officers of grades O-4 to O-6 and civilian equivalents who are engaged in a broad range of defense acquisition (e.g., policy development, strategic planning, requirements definition, logistics, program management) and/or contract management fields (e.g., materiel planners, requirements developers, end users, contract managers, analysts, tender evaluators, contract negotiators, source selection decision-makers).

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG programming has been developed over 25 years by providing military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build connected networks of international peers through a professional learning environment.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and American and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted with partner nations as part of the US Government security cooperation effort. Participation in ISG courses is managed through the Security Cooperation Office of the US Embassy in-country. Interested partner nation personnel should work through their government’s international cooperation section, or the relevant US Embassy’s security/military cooperation section for selection processes and enrollment. Where appropriate, ISG reserves limited space in courses for US citizens. Interested US citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

ISG can accept most types of US Government funding. Courses are typically funded by IMET, FMF, FMS, CTIWWP/RDFP, PKO, and other DoD-wide O&M funds (333, 332, MSI, etc.). Cost estimates can be obtained by contacting ISG or the applicable NETSAFA Country Program Manager.

ABOUT ISG

The Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is a Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA) schoolhouse, and leading Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) implementer, focused on helping partners build effective and accountable security institutions. ISG’s tailored ICB approach supports partners in developing, resourcing, and sustaining the institutional capabilities and professionalization necessary to pursue common security cooperation objectives.
