

Onshore Wind Services Supply Chain Management

December 5, 2023 | 12:00–12:50 pm PST | Spanagel Hall, Room #321

Tom Przybelski

Senior Services Manager, Onshore Wind Services
GE Vernova

Abstract

GE Vernova's onshore wind business is a significant contributor to global electricity production. The pandemic-era supply chain disruptions provide a window into the management of material flow in a critical sector and a demonstration of operational robustness.
